

Rahn Hutcheson

Executive Director

Averitt Center for the Arts

P.O. Box 926 • 33 East Main Street

Downtown Statesboro • (912) 212-2787

www.averittcenterforthearts.org

rhutcheson@averittcenterforthearts.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

February 25, 2020

Eddie Frazier spotlighted in ONE series

Local theater legend Eddie Frazier takes center stage at the Whitaker Black Box Theater for the second One series of the 2019-20 season on February 28.

The One series, developed by Georgia Theater Hall of Fame member and former Georgia Southern University theater professor Mical Whitaker and exclusively sponsored by Brinson, Williams and Groomes Insurance, highlights the life and talents of gifted and well-established individuals in the community. The audience shares 90 minutes with the artist, first in a guest-host interview and, of course, a performance. There is also a light reception following the event.

Frazier has been teaching drama at Statesboro High School since 2001, and has been the theater director since 2004. He's directed dramatic pieces such as Wit, Suddenly, Last Summer, 'night, Mother and The Whales of August as well as numerous large musical theater productions such as The Jungle Book, 101 Dalmatians, Cinderella, Charlotte's Web, Peter Pan, Mary Poppins, and Mulan. He also directed 9 to 5: The Musical, 'night, Mother and Guys and Dolls for the Averitt STARS, was the voice of Audrey II in the STARS production of Little Shop of Horrors, and co-directed the Averitt Youth Theater's production of The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe. He recently starred as Uncle Fester in The Addams Family at the Averitt Center.

Tickets for the general-admission performance, which begins at 7:30 p.m., are $15 for adults and $10 for students. They can be purchased in the Box Office at the Averitt Center Main Gallery (open 10 a.m.-7 p.m. Monday through Friday), by calling 912-212-2787 or on-line at averittcenterforthearts.org/performances-events.

The series featured Vivian Summers in November 2018, Shaunta Ellis in February 2019, Nora Franklin in May 2019 and Brandi Harvey in November 2019.